Application for a minor in Spanish should be made to the Chair of the Spanish Program. A minor in Spanish requires a minimum of seven courses (or six courses and a designated Short Term unit). All courses taken at Bates must be from the Spanish curriculum (SPAN). At least one of the seven courses must involve a study of literature or culture. A student may petition to have up to three comparable courses, completed at other institutions either in the United States or abroad, apply toward the minor.

Courses to count towards the Secondary Concentration:
