SUMMER DIVERSITY INTERNSHIP PROGRAMS 2017

The list below gives examples of some of the many internships available. Please consult with the Bates Career Development Center for more information. In addition to these programs, there are hundreds of traditional internship opportunities available through Handshake (which includes Bates-posted internships as well as job boards available to you through Handshake). In addition, be sure to check out opportunities that are funded by Bates here.

The Emma L. Bowen Foundation offers paid internships in the media industry for college-aged students of color. Opportunities are available for all functions and departments in media companies. Early Action Deadline (guaranteed to receive 1st round interview) November 6, 2016. Priority consideration deadline is December 31, 2016. Final Deadline March 31st, 2017 http://www.emmabowenfoundation.com/application_info

The David W. Davis Memorial Internship is a 13-week paid public service opportunity at the Massachusetts Port Authority. The internship will be awarded annually to an exceptional junior or senior in college. Priority will be given to first-generation students. The David W. Davis Memorial Internship helps students develop a professional network that will aid them in pursuing a career in government and/or the public sector. Must be a Boston resident with a minimum 3.0 GPA and involved in community service. Deadline is April 28, 2017.

Federal Diversity Internship Initiative: U.S. Government Internships
The Washington Center offers the Federal Diversity Internship Initiative to help students from a wide variety of backgrounds access opportunities with selected government agencies. Positions are located in the Washington, D.C. area as well as in other regions across the U.S. The application deadline for summer 2017 internships is January 18, 2017. Must be a U.S. Citizen, have a 3.0 GPA and demonstrate a strong interest in working with a federal agency. Selected interns receive a stipend from The Washington Center twice each month.
http://www.twc.edu/internships/additional-programs/federal-diversity-internship-initiative

HACU National Internship Program
The Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities offers summer 2017 internships in the corporate sector for students with a GPA of 3.0 and above. Internships run from June 3 – August 16, 2017. Resumes are reviewed as they are received, and the application period is rolling so don’t delay.
http://www.hacu.net/hacu/Corporate_HACU_Internship_Program.asp

INROADS
This organization develops and places talented, underserved young adults in business and industry internships and prepares them for corporate and community leadership. The internship program includes skills training, a paid multi-year internship with a top company, networking opportunities and professional and personal coaching year-round. Eligible to applicants with a B average or better. Applications are accepted year round but it is highly advisable to complete the application as soon as possible—no later than April. Open to all students who have at least one more summer to complete before graduation.
http://www.inroads.org/students/whats-in-it-for-you

Management Leadership for Tomorrow (MLT)
MLT Career Prep is an 18month career prep program for emerging leaders with career development coaching, exposure and access to over 60 employers, skills development seminars hosted around the country. Early admission deadline is December 30th, 2016. Round One Deadline, January 30th, 2017. Final submission deadline is March 1, 2017. Open to students of color graduating in fall 2018 or Spring/Summer 2019. U.S. citizens or legal permanent residents. Solid academic performance and leadership experience. Professional goals aligned with careers in consulting, non-profit, technology, marketing, media/entertainment, healthcare, financial services.
http://www.ml4t.org/program-overview/

Sponsors for Educational Opportunity (SEO) Career Program
SEO Career is a summer internship and professional development program targeting talented Black, Hispanic, and Native American undergrads and pre-law school candidates. Participants receive free career prep resources, training, and coaching to land a summer internship and, ultimately, to secure a full-time job offer in business, technology, or law. Summer internships pay up to $1300 per week. Paid summer internships leading to full-time jobs in in corporate leadership, banking and private equity internships, law, and nonprofits. International students with an F-1 visa and CPT or OPT remaining are eligible for specific internships. Seniors who are applying to law school and will begin law school in the fall following the internship summer are eligible for Law only. First-years may apply in their fall semester without a GPA. All other candidates must have a 3.0 cumulative GPA to be eligible for career prep or internships. There are 6 application rounds with deadlines from October 1 – March 1. Deadlines Applications for summer internships on a monthly basis from October 1 through March 1. Specific deadlines vary by internship: December 15: Consulting and Sales & Trading; January 1: International students for Business & Technology; March 25: Law internships; April 1: all other Business & Technology internships. Candidates who apply after the final deadline will be considered at SEO’s discretion.
http://www.seocareer.org/

Hope for Brooklyn
Eligible students must be residents of one of the 5 boroughs of New York City and a first-year, sophomore or junior in college. Must demonstrate financial need and be available in the summer full time for 10 consecutive weeks. Deadline: February 24, 2017. Paid internships or funding for those who have internships in social change and community and public service work. http://www.hopeforbrooklyn.com/

Cultural Vistas Fellowship
An 8-week summer internship program that gives undergraduate students who have not yet participated in a formal study or internship abroad program the opportunity to gain practical work experience in Argentina, Germany, or India. The Cultural Vistas Fellowship is open to students in all fields who can demonstrate their interest in or commitment to advancing their career goals, developing global competencies, and experiencing life in another culture. Covers program-related travel expenses. Must be U.S. citizen, sophomore or junior at the time of application. Minimum GPA is 3.0. Deadline: January 6, 2017.
http://www.culturalvistas.org/cvfellowship

LEGAL INTERNSHIPS:

DLA Piper Undergraduate Internship Program
DLA Piper is a global law firm providing interns with access to mentoring and opportunity to develop their skills during a six-week paid internship. Eligible students are from underrepresented backgrounds who are doing well in school and have demonstrated an interest in a career in the law.
http://www.dlapiperbreakintolaw.com/work/internships/undergraduate-program.html

The U.S. State Department offers the Rangel Summer Enrichment Program
For undergraduates interested in foreign affairs, a fully-funded summer academic and experiential program in Washington, D.C. The application deadline is February 2, 2017. Must be a sophomore, junior or senior as of the deadline date with a minimum 3.2 GPA and be a U.S. citizen. If interested, please contact Nancy Gibson at BCDC for more information. All costs, including travel, are covered and a $3200 stipend is provided. Program dates are tentatively June 20 – July 31, 2017.
www.rangelprogram.org

The Boston Lawyers Group offers a Summer Internship Program which introduces talented college students from diverse backgrounds to career opportunities within the legal profession. Interns work in law firms, government agencies, or corporate legal departments from June – August. They also participate in fun and interactive professional development workshops and tour Boston area law schools and observe a live court trial. The application is usually available in December and is due in early February.
http://thebostonlawyersgroup.com/programs/

The American Bar Foundation in Chicago, IL offers the Montgomery Summer Research Diversity Fellowship program to American citizens and permanent residents including, but not limited to, persons who are African American, Hispanic/Latino, Asian, Native American, or Puerto Rican, as well as other individuals who will add diversity to the field of law and social science, such as persons with disabilities and LGBTQ persons. The summer program is designed to introduce students to the rewards and demands of a research-oriented career in the field of law and social science. Current sophomores and juniors are eligible. Applicants must have a GPA of at least 3.0 major in the social sciences or humanities. The deadline is February 15, 2017. Please contact Nancy Gibson at ngibson@bates.edu if interested.
http://www.americanbarfoundation.org/fellowships/Call_for_Summer_Research_Diversity_Fellows.html
HEALTHCARE OPPORTUNITIES:

Co-op/Internships and Summer Research Opportunities for 2017
http://people.rit.edu/gtfsbi/Symp/mcoop.htm

307 Health care careers enrichment programs

Health Career Connection - http://www.healthcareers.org/program-overview 10 week paid health career summer internships in 7 regions of the U.S.

Pathways to Science – http://www.pathwaystoscience.org/
Research opportunities such as AMGEN, SURF, MIT’s Summer Neuro program, etc. Click on undergrad to search opportunities.

SMDEP – http://www.smdep.org/
For First Years and Sophomores. Implemented at 11 program sites across the nation. Each site provides academic enrichment in the basic sciences and math, clinical experiences, career development activities, learning and study skills seminars, and a financial planning workshop.