

Minor in Asian Studies

In consultation with an Asian studies faculty member (chosen or appointed by the Asian studies chair) and in accordance with program guidelines, students may design their own course of study.

- Any courses with the designation ASIA, AS, CHI, CI, JA, JPN
- ANTH 240, ANTH 263, ANTH 264, AVC 248, EN/WS 121G, ENG 260, FYS 439, MUS 290C (1 credit maximum counted toward Asian studies minor), MUS s25

Coherent Group: _____

Examples include a group of courses related to Buddhist studies, South Asia, gender issues, environmental concerns, a specific historical period, or the socioeconomic or political situation of a particular region. No more than two language courses may be counted toward the coherent group.

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Two more courses:

- _____
- _____

Courses Taken Abroad. Students may petition the minor adviser to have up to two courses taken in their study abroad program applied toward the fulfillment of requirements.

Pass/Fail Grading Option. Pass/fail grading may not be elected for courses applied toward the Asian Studies minor.

Restrictions on double-dipping. Majors in Chinese, Japanese, or East Asian studies and minors in Chinese or Japanese may count no more than one course toward both the Asian studies minor and their major or minor.