

Japanese Major

1) Language:

a 6 Japanese language courses (Also see Courses Taken Abroad below)

- JPN 101
- JPN 102
- JPN 201
- JPN 202
- JPN 301
- JPN 302

Students with previous experience in Japanese who begin their study of Japanese at the second-year level may elect to fulfill this requirement with JPN 201–202 and 301–302, 401–402 or the equivalent.

b One Advanced Japanese

- JPN 401 or JPN 402

JPN 401 and/or 402 may be used in fulfillment of either this requirement or (a) above but not both.

2) Literature and Culture:

a Core course

- AS/JA 125. Japanese Literature and Society.

b 2 Literature and Culture courses: (Also see Courses Taken Abroad below)

- _____
- _____

- AS/JA 130, AS/JA 261, AS/JA 215, courses in past catalog

One of the following courses may count toward this requirement:

- AS/RE 209. Religions of Japan.
- AS/RE 309. Buddhism in East Asia.
- AS/RE 348. Epics of Asia: Myth and Religion.
- AV/AS 236. Japanese Art and Visual Culture.
- AV/AS 246. Visual Narratives: Storytelling in East Asian Art.
- AV/AS 247. The Art of Zen Buddhism.

3) Thesis Sequence:

a Senior Seminar

- ASIA 320. Individual and Society in East Asia.

b Senior Thesis.

- JPN 457 or 458.

Courses Taken Abroad. Students may petition the program to have courses taken in their study abroad program applied toward the fulfillment of requirements (1a) and (2b).

Pass/Fail Grading Option. Pass/fail grading may not be elected for courses applied toward the Japanese major.

Advanced Placement. Students may receive credit for JPN 102 with a score of four on the Japanese Advanced Placement examination and JPN 201 with a score of five.

Restrictions on double-dipping. Majors and minors in Japanese may count no more than one course toward both the Asian Studies minor and their major.