(Table 2) Bank Street, Graduate School of Education
Bank Street Graduate School of Education is committed to learner-centered education with a social justice slant. Our master's programs integrate direct experience with children, teachers, and families, exploration and examination of theory, and observation and reflection. Our programs prepare adults for professional work in schools, museums, hospitals, and community organizations. MS in Child Life; MSEd with a variety of specialties including Early Childhood (birth-grade 2), Childhood (grades 1-6), Adolescent (grades 7-12), Infancy, Special Education, Dual Language/Bilingual, TESOL, Museum Education, & Literacy; MSEd/MSW Dual Degree programs; Educational Leadership programs that lead to School Building Leader certification for those who are eligible.  https://www.bankstreet.edu/graduate-school/admissions/explore/

(Boston College
Lynch School of Education
Consistently ranked among the top 25 schools of education and as the top-ranked Catholic school of education in the country, the Lynch School at Boston College offers 13 master's programs, six doctoral programs, and five dual-degree programs. Theory, research, and practice are integrated across programs, which also leverage the robust practicum opportunities available in schools, hospitals, mental health centers, and universities in the Boston metropolitan area. The Lynch School’s focus on expanding social justice is a hallmark of our programs and the work of our students and faculty.  http://www.bc.edu/schools/lsoe/gradadmission/

Brandeis University
Master of Arts in Teaching Program
The Brandeis Master of Arts in Teaching Program (MAT) is a year-long intensive program rooted in social justice which prepares students with strong liberal arts backgrounds to become highly qualified, licensed classroom teachers. The program combines two summers of study on the Brandeis campus with a nine-month internship in a public elementary or secondary (middle or high) school or a Jewish day school, in the Boston area.  go.brandeis.edu/education

Brookwood School
Masters in Early Childhood or Elementary Education
Brookwood School Teacher Training Program:
The Brookwood School Teacher Training Program is a one year accelerated master's degree program offered in collaboration with Lesley University. This is a full immersion program leading to a Master's Degree and Initial Massachusetts Teaching License in either Early Childhood or Elementary Education. This comprehensive program allows participants to learn to teach by teaching while simultaneously exploring educational philosophy through graduate courses offered at both Brookwood School and Lesley University. Teaching Apprentices spend each day of the school year working cooperatively with mentor teachers and have the opportunity to teach at two different grade levels. TAs are actively involved in all aspects of classroom life and the greater school community. Tuition for the program is split between Lesley University and Brookwood School. This split tuition model allows you to get double the teaching time at roughly two thirds the cost.  http://brookwood.edu/brookwood_school_teacher_training_program

Brown University Department of Education
Department of Education
The Brown Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) Program is an intensive one year master’s and certification program that prepares tomorrow’s teacher leaders. The twelve-month Urban Education Policy (UEP) Program is dedicated to the study of policy analysis, planning, and development in urban public education. https://www.brown.edu/academics/education/graduate

Note: A school with an asterisk (*) means they are only attending Bates and Bowdoin Graduate Fairs.
Columbia University
Teachers College
Teachers College, Columbia University is more than its name implies—it is an urban, independent, thoroughly diverse and multicultural, comprehensive graduate and professional school of education. Since its inception in 1887, Teachers College has also been a leading institution concerned with extending educational opportunity and improving the quality of education in and out of the classroom and across the lifespan. With more than 120 top-ranked graduate degree programs from which to choose, Teachers College offers students an unmatched array of areas of study. Students can concentrate in areas including education and educational leadership, clinical and counseling psychology, social and behavioral sciences, the arts and humanities, health and health promotion, international and comparative education, policy, and technology. www.tc.edu.admissions

Lesley University
Graduate Admissions
Lesley University empowers students to become dynamic, thoughtful leaders in education, mental health counseling, and the arts. Located in the heart of Cambridge, Massachusetts, home to the world’s best-known universities, Lesley combines an intensely creative environment with the practical experience students need to succeed in their careers. Each year, 2,500 undergraduate and 5,300 graduate students pursue degrees on campus, off site, online, and through our low-residency programs. Along with our 84,000 alumni, they’re discovering the power of creativity to overcome obstacles, foster connections, and reveal fresh answers to the world’s problems. www.lesley.edu

Lesley University
Berwick Academy M.Ed. Teacher Residency Program
Berwick Academy and Lesley University’s Collaborative Teacher Residency Program offers a purposeful blend of hands-on teaching experiences and graduate courses, resulting in a M.Ed. Students complete their Lesley graduate coursework and student teaching in 14 months while immersing themselves full-time in the classrooms of Berwick Academy. Each teaching apprentice in this field-based program works under the guidance of experienced Berwick Academy faculty mentors while taking Lesley University courses. Our apprentices develop the knowledge and skills essential for successful teaching while earning legitimate work experience at one of New England’s finest independent schools. The program will begin in June, and is open to aspiring educators in the elementary, middle, and high school levels (PK-12). http://www.berwickacademy.org/Page/About-Us/Graduate-Teacher-Training-with-Lesley-University

University of Southern Maine
Graduate Admissions
The University of Southern Maine offers 50+ programs at the master’s, doctoral and certificate levels, including programs in Business, Education, Leadership, Creative Writing, Music, Policy, Planning and Management – as well as Public Health, Social Work, Counseling, Biology, Nursing and Occupational Therapy, among many others. https://usm.maine.edu/graduate

Marlboro College
Graduate and Professional Studies
The graduate and professional studies program at Marlboro College is a community of visionary individuals who devote their collective talents toward shaping a better world. In our graduate, certification, and continuing education options, students are encouraged to be who they are – and become who they want to be – by learning, discussing, creating, and collaborating with others. Our MA in Teaching programs provide the skills and knowledge to reignite teachers’ passion, dedication, and drive to lead and inspire. Our MS in Management and MBA students become effective leaders equipped to make strong, ethical business choices that create lasting positive impact. https://www.marlboro.edu/academics/graduate

Merrimack College
Graduate Admission
Merrimack College offers graduate programs in the following areas: accounting, management, public affairs, engineering, computer science, education, counseling, and health sciences. All of our graduate programs are full-time, intensive degree programs, which can also be completed on a part-time, flexible schedule. There is no fee to apply and applications are accepted on a rolling admission basis. merrimack.edu/graduate

Mount Holyoke College
Master of Arts in Teaching
The Master of Arts in Teaching at Mount Holyoke College is an accelerated co-ed teacher education program for an initial teacher license in 19 licensure areas including early childhood, elementary, middle, and secondary school. The flexible, 11-month (August to June) 36-credit program includes an innovative curriculum with a strong commitment to social justice and equity, a unique collaboration with EL Education, and personalized advising. Mount Holyoke consistently prepares outstanding educators who have transformed communities around the world. Our teacher candidates are placed in a variety of public, charter, and independent schools and are consistently rated as excellent and outstanding by their supervising practitioners. Students who complete the teacher licensure program have a 100 percent pass rate on the Massachusetts Test for Education Licensure (MTEL). Mount Holyoke College is a member of the Consortium for Excellence in Teacher Education (CETE). www.mtholyoke.edu/professional-graduate/mat

Thomas College
Graduate Admission
We’re glad you’re thinking about advancing your career through further education. Consider how Thomas can help you get there with our options for full-time, part-time, and professional development studies. Hard-working students will succeed at Thomas. We look forward to hearing about the achievements, abilities, and experiences that have primed you for success in graduate study at Thomas. We are unique in that we offer 10-month Accelerated Programs in Business, Education and Accounting! http://www.thomas.edu/academics/graduate-programs/