Business

See descriptions below list
Babson College, Master of Science in Management in Entrepreneurial Leadership and Master of Science in Accounting
Brandeis International Business School
Bryant University School of Business
Johns Hopkins University, Carey Business School
MIT Sloan School of Management, Masters of Finance
Northeastern University, D’Amore-McKim Graduate School of Business (MS Accounting/MBA)
NYU Stern, MBA Admissions
University of Maine, Maine Business School
Villanova University School of Business
Yale School of Management

Babson College, Master of Science in Management in Entrepreneurial Leadership and Master of Science in Accounting
Babson’s F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business offers two masters programs. The Master of Science in Management in Entrepreneurial Leadership is a nine-month, cohort-based program during which students will take an integrated set of courses. To complement and support the coursework, students will participate in leadership activities, experiential learning programs, and two global experiences. More than simply meeting the CPA requirements, the Master of Science in Accounting program prepares graduates for public accounting careers in a dynamic and global profession. Graduates gain technical accounting knowledge while also developing skills immediately applicable to their career. www.babson.edu

Brandeis International Business School
Brandeis IBS has a worldwide reputation for academic excellence. For two years, it has been ranked #1 in the US by the Financial Times for pre-experience finance master’s programs. The school is part of Brandeis University, one of the world’s leading research universities, and is located a short drive from Boston, Massachusetts, one of the most vibrant cities in the country for finance, healthcare, biotechnology and innovation. www.Brandeis.edu/global

Bryant University, School of Business
Bryant University is an AACSB accredited institution that offers a Full-time and Part-time MBA Program, a Masters in Professional Accountancy and a Masters in Taxation. As an institution that traces its heritage of more than 150 years as one of America’s first business schools, Bryant University brings to its students and alumni a tradition of innovation to management education and the opportunity for personal success. Our programs combine the latest in business theory with essential management skills. http://gradschool.bryant.edu/
Johns Hopkins University, Carey Business School

Programs include the two-year, full time Global MBA; a part-time MBA geared to working professionals; the Executive MBA, designed for senior managers advancing in their careers; full- and part-time MS programs in enterprise risk management, information systems, finance, health care management, marketing, and real estate and infrastructure; and graduate certificates in Financial Management, Investments and Business of Health Care. http://carey.jhu.edu

MIT Sloan School of Management, Masters of Finance

MIT Sloan launched its Master of Finance (MFin) as a direct response to demand in the financial industry. This rigorous one-year program combines in-depth study of quantitative techniques with practical, hands-on business problem solving. Beyond the traditional synergies among economics, finance, and accounting, MIT Sloan’s MFin program exploits the intellectual ties between finance, mathematics, statistics, operations research, computer science, and engineering. http://mitsloan.mit.edu/mfin/

Northeastern University, D’Amore-McKim Graduate School of Business, MS Accounting/MBA

The MS in Accounting/MBA is a full-time, 15 month program that begins each year in late May. Students complete a three-month paid residency from January – March at one of the partner accounting firms. Firm representatives are impressed by the candidates that are recruited into the program as they come from competitive schools, have strong liberal arts backgrounds, and excellent academic portfolios. Liberal Arts/non-business majors tend to have strong interpersonal and communication skills, making them valuable assets to an engagement team. The MSA/MBA provides the technical and functional specialization that help round out the liberal arts education. As a result, there is virtually 100% job placement upon graduation. http://www.damore-mckim.northeastern.edu/en/academic-programs/graduate-programs/dual-degrees/accounting-mba/

NYU Stern, MBA Admissions

Located in the heart of New York City’s Greenwich Village, NYU Stern is one of the world’s premier institutions of management education. With more than 300 faculty and three Nobel Prize winners, Stern offers academic programs at the graduate and undergraduate levels that use New York City and global hubs around the world as classroom environments for learning. Stern has a special opportunity called the William Berkley Scholars Program which supports exceptional college seniors who wish to pursue their Full-time MBA at NYU Stern directly following graduation. The scholarship covers the full two-year tuition and fees, provides a housing stipend of $18,000/year, and includes a $10,000/year stipend for books and other expenses. Berkley Scholars will also receive intensive mentoring from the Stern community. http://www.stern.nyu.edu/

University of Maine, Maine Business School

The MBA program at The University of Maine emphasizes experiential, hands-on learning, teamwork, critical thinking and leadership while producing leaders with superlative business skills. The Maine Business School MBA offers concentrations in accounting, finance, international business, business & sustainability, and management. The Graduate Business Certificate offered totally online, is also a pathway to the MBA. Study abroad in Finland, South Korea, Germany, or France. Come be a part of our Tier 1, Division I, Flagship University in beautiful Orono. The Maine Business School is ranked by US News and World Report among the nation’s best and is fully accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International) since 1974. www.umaine.edu/business/mba

Villanova University School of Business

Master of Accountancy Program (MAC): Centered on a 12-week summer semester where more than half of the degree is earned in a full-time format. Fall and spring semester courses are delivered on a flexible distance-learning schedule, allowing students to complete the 30-credit degree while working or participating in an internship. Master of Science in Finance (MSF): The Villanova Master of Science in Finance (MSF) program is a rigorous, 12-month, full-time degree program that includes hands-on interaction with the business world in addition to classroom study. http://www1.villanova.edu/villanova/business/graduate.html

Yale School of Management

A two-year program, featuring a distinctive integrated curriculum, Yale-authored “raw” cases, and international study, as well as close engagement in the intellectual life of Yale University. http://som.yale.edu/