2017-18 Request for Financial Aid Reconsideration

Student's Name: _____ Bates ID#: _____

You may request reconsideration of your financial aid award through the Bates College appeal process. If you have experienced a measurable change in your family's financial circumstances, or if you believe there are special circumstances that were not considered initially, please complete this form and provide us with a written statement explaining why you are requesting financial aid reconsideration. All requests must be accompanied by documentation that directly addresses and supports the change being reported. Please note that we may request additional information if necessary.

CHECK ALL THAT APPLY TO YOU:

- Loss or change of employment
- Divorce or Separation
- Death or Disability
- Loss of untaxed income (social security, pension, child support, etc.)
- Non-reimbursed medical and/or dental bills or handicapped-related expenses
- One-time payment that over-inflated your annual income
- Incorrect financial information noted on initial aid application

All of the information being provided is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that submission of this information does not guarantee an adjustment to the student's award or a change to the original financial aid decision.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____
