THE PETER J. GOMES CHAPEL

Order of Celebration

“At the end of the road, they will ask me, ‘Have you lived? Have you loved?’
And not saying a word, I will open my heart, full of names.”

— Dom Pedro Casaldáliga

Organ Prelude

Adagio e Dolce

(From the Trio-Sonata No. 3 in D minor by Johann Sebastian Bach)

Words of Welcome and Call to Memorial

The Rev. Emily Wright-Magoon, Acting Multifaith Chaplain

*Gathering Hymn

“Come Down, O Love Divine”

(Words: Bianco da Siena, tr. Richard Frederick Littledale. Music: Ralph Vaughan Williams)

1 Come down, O Love di - vine, seek thou this soul of mine,
2 O let it free - ly burn, till earth - ly pas - sions turn
3 And so the yearn - ing strong, with which the soul will long, and vis - it it with thine own ar - dor glow - ing;

to dust and ash - es in its heat con - sum - ing;
shall far out - pass the power of hu - man tell - ing;

O Com - fort - er, draw near, with - in my heart ap - pear,
and let thy glo - rious light shine ev - er on my sight, for none can guess its grace, till Love cre - ate a place and kin - dle it, thy ho - ly flame be - stow - ing.

and clothe me round, the while my path il - lum - ing.
where - in the Ho - ly Spi - rit makes a dwell - ing.

Reading

Excerpt from the sermon of the Rev. Peter Gomes '65 at the 2010 Bates Alumni Memorial Service, June 13, 2010
Joyce Mantyla '65

We are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, and in our day, and in our time, we will join them. What the young aspire to, what we still aspire to, these are the things that define who we are in this beloved community of memory and hope. And my hope is that we will never fail in that ambition. For, you see, it is our duty to remember.

Duty is a peculiarly Batesie word. You know it, and I know it. It is our duty to remember, to recall that which was, and to preserve the best of that for the time to come. The young, while they are young, may not get it. They get so little. But their time is coming, and some of them will learn from some of us that this duty to remember is not onerous. In many ways it is joyful.

So when we come back and engage in our duty to remember those gone before us, we in some sense are made whole again. Our classmates come back to us. Our experience is complete because of them and with them. And they are given new life in this place, which continues to give life to us and to others.

Musical Interlude

“Allein Gott in der Höh’ sei Ehr”
(“Alone, God, in Highest Heavens” by Johann Sebastian Bach)

Reflection

The Rev. Kate Holbrook '00, Chaplain, Colorado College

Anthem

Earth Song
By Frank Ticheli

Sing, Be, Live, See....This dark stormy hour,
The wind, it stirs. The scorched earth cries out in vain:
O war and power, you blind and blur.
The torn heart cries out in pain, in pain.
But music and singing have been my refuge,
And music and singing shall be my light.
A light of song, shining strong: Alleluia! Alleluia.
Through darkness and pain and strife,
I'll sing, I'll Be, Live, See.... Peace. Peace.

Procession of Flowers

You are invited to bring your flower forward and place it on the Memorial Wall in memory and honor of a beloved friend, family member, classmate, or colleague who has died.

A Litany of Remembrance

Jason Rafferty '05

- Leader: Gracious God, from whose heart we come and to which we return, we gather today to remember and give thanks for the women and men of Bates College who have died this year.
- People: We pray that, encouraged by their examples and strengthened by their legacies, we may be more deeply aware of the goodness and fragility of human life.
- The following is a traditional Jewish memorial prayer for the deceased.*
- Leader: In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.
- People: In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.
- Leader: In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.
- People: In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.
- Leader: In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.
- People: In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.
- Leader: When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.
- People: When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.
- Leader: When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.
- All: So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

Bruce Cooper '65, Lyn Gray '65, Douglas Macko '65, and Karin McElvein '65 will read the names of the deceased.

After the reading of the names, we will observe a moment of silence as the bell tolls in memory of the deceased.

Choral Response

Come, My Way, My Truth, My Life
Music by Richard Delong, text by George Herbert

Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life:
such a way as gives us breath;
such a truth as ends all strife;
such a life as killeth death.
Come, my Light, my Feast, my Strength:
such a light as shows a feast;
such a feast as mends in length;
such a strength as makes his guest.
Come, my Joy, my Love, my Heart:
such a joy as none can move;
such a love as none can part;
such a heart as joys in love.

Prayers for the Dead

---

The Mourner's Kaddish
Jordan Becker '15

Translation

Exalted and hallowed be God's great name in this world of Divine creation.
May God rule in our own day, in our own lives, and in the life of all Israel; and let us say, Amen.
Let the Holy One's great name be blessed forever and ever, praised and honored, extolled and glorified, adored, and exalted.
Supremely blessed be the Holy One, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises, and consolations, that may be uttered in this world; and let us say, Amen.
For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true;
and let us say, Amen.
May the One who causes peace to reign in the heavens let peace descend upon us, upon all Israel, and upon the whole world; and let us say, Amen.

“For the Dead, Dust Rising”
(A prayer of Muhammad Iqbal)
Karen Hjelm '65

It is true that we are made of dust
As the world, too, is made of dust.
But dust motes rise.
We look to the starry sky
and love storms in our hearts.
This journey of love that we are on is long indeed,
but sometimes,
with just a sigh,
we can cross the vast desert.
Search and search again.
Do not lose hope.
It is true that we are made of dust
as the world, too, is made of dust.
But dust motes rise.

---

“Peace, My Heart”
(Rabindranath Tagore)
Thomas Bowditch '65

Peace, my heart, let the time for the parting be sweet.
Let it not be a death but completeness.
Let love melt into memory, and pain into songs.
Let the flight through the sky end in the folding of the wings over the nest.
Let the last touch of your hands be gentle like the flower of the night.
Stand still, O Beautiful End, for a moment, and say your last words in silence.
I bow to you and hold up my lamp to light you on your way.

*The College Hymn

“O God, Beneath Thy Guiding Hand”
(Tune: Duke Street. Text: Leonard Bacon, 1838)

O God, beneath thy guiding hand,
Our exiled forebears cross'd the sea;
And when they trod the wintry strand,
With pray'r and psalm they worship'd Thee.

Thou heards't, well pleased, the song, the prayer;
Thy blessing came; and still its power
Shall onward, through all ages, bear
The memory of that holy hour.

Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God
Came with those exiles o'er the waves;
And where their pilgrim feet have trod
The God they trusted guards their graves.

And here Thy name, O God of love,
Their children's children shall adore,
Till these eternal hills remove
And spring adorns the earth no more.
