THE PETER J. GOMES CHAPEL

Order of Celebration

*“To live in this world, you must be able to do three things: To love what is mortal;
to hold it against your bones knowing your life depends on it; and when the time comes to let it go, let it go.”*
— Mary Oliver, “In Blackwater Woods”

Organ Prelude

Adagio e Dolce

(From the Trio Sonata No. 3 in D minor by Johann Sebastian Bach)

Words of Welcome and Call to Memorial

The Rev. Brittany Longsdorf, Multifaith Chaplain

Gathering Hymn*

“Come Down, O Love Divine”

(Words: Bianco da Siena; trans. Richard Frederick Littledale. Music: Ralph Vaughan Williams)

1 Come down, O Love di - vine, seek thou this soul of mine,
2 O let it free - ly burn, till earth - ly pas - sions turn
3 And so the yearn - ing strong, with which the soul will long,

and vis - it it with thine own ar - dor glow - ing;
to dust and ash - es in its heat con - sum - ing;
shall far out - pass the power of hu - man tell - ing;

O Com - fort - er, draw near, with - in my heart ap - pear,
and let thy glo - rious light shine ev - er on my sight, for none can guess its grace, till Love cre - ate a place and kin - dle it, thy ho - ly flame be - stow - ing.

and clothe me round, the while my path il - lum - ing.
where - in the Ho - ly Spi - rit makes a dwell - ing.

Don Miller '67

We are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, and in our day, and in our time, we will join them. What the young aspire to, what we still aspire to, these are the things that define who we are in this beloved community of memory and hope. And my hope is that we will never fail in that ambition. For, you see, it is our duty to remember.

Duty is a peculiarly Batesie word. You know it, and I know it. It is our duty to remember, to recall that which was, and to preserve the best of that for the time to come. The young, while they are young, may not get it. They get so little. But their time is coming, and some of them will learn from some of us that this duty to remember is not onerous. In many ways it is joyful.

So when we come back and engage in our duty to remember those gone before us, we in some sense are made whole again. Our classmates come back to us. Our experience is complete because of them and with them. And they are given new life in this place, which continues to give life to us and to others.

Musical Interlude

“Allein Gott in der Höh’ sei Ehr”
(“Alone, God, in Highest Heavens” by Johann Sebastian Bach)

Reflection from the Class of 1992

Reading

“The soil is the great connector of lives, the source and destination of all. It is the healer and restorer and resurrector, by which disease passes into health, age into youth, death into life. Without proper care for it we can have no community, because without proper care for it we can have no life.”

—Wendell Berry, The Unsettling of America: Culture and Agriculture

Homily

The Rev. Brittany Longsdorf, Multifaith Chaplain

Anthem

“Earth Song”
(By Frank Ticheli)

Sing, Be, Live, See...This dark stormy hour,
The wind, it stirs. The scorched earth cries out in vain:
O war and power, you blind and blur.
The torn heart cries out in pain, in pain.
But music and singing have been my refuge,
And music and singing shall be my light.
A light of song, shining strong: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Through darkness and pain and strife,
I'll sing, I'll Be, Live, See...Peace. Peace.

Introduction to the Procession of Flowers
The Rev. Raymond Clothier, Associate Multifaith Chaplain

Procession of Flowers

You are invited to bring your flower forward and place it on the Memorial Wall in memory and honor of a beloved friend, family member, classmate, or colleague who has died.

“At the End of the Year”

(By John O’Donohue)
Susan Dailaire Lagueux ’67

One:	The particular mind of the ocean Filling the coastline’s longing	One:	Where expectation seemed to have quenched.
Many:	With such brief harvest Of elegant, vanishing waves	Many:	The slow, brooding times When all was awkward
One:	Is like the mind of time Opening us shapes of days.	One:	And the wave in the mind Pierced every sore with salt.
Many:	As this year draws to its end, We give thanks for the gifts it brought	Many:	The darkened days that stopped The confidence of the dawn.
One:	And how they become inlaid within Where neither time nor tide can touch them.	One:	Days when beloved faces shone brighter With light from beyond themselves;
Many:	The days when the veil lifted And the soul could see delight;	Many:	And from the granite of some secret sorrow A stream of many tears loosened.
One:	When a quiver caressed the heart In the sheer exuberance of being here.	One:	We bless this year for all we have learned, For all we loved and lost
Many:	Surprises that came awake In forgotten corners of old fields	All:	And for the quiet way it brought us Nearer to our invisible destination.

Reading of Names

After the reading of the names, we will observe a moment of silence as the bell tolls in memory of the deceased.
Gina Ciobanu ’17, Roland Davis ’92, Wyland Leadbetter ’67, and the Rev. Leslie Stewart Simonson ’67

Choral Response

“Come, My Way, My Truth, My Life”
(Music: Richard Delong. Words: George Herbert)

Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life:
such a way as gives us breath;
such a truth as ends all strife;
such a life as killeth death.
Come, my Light, my Feast, my Strength:
such a light as shows a feast;
such a feast as mends in length;
such a strength as makes his guest.
Come, my Joy, my Love, my Heart:
such a joy as none can move;
such a love as none can part;
such a heart as joys in love.

The Mourner's Kaddish

Rachel Minkovitz '19

Translation

Exalted and hallowed be God's great name in this world of Divine creation.
May God rule in our own day, in our own lives, and in the life of all Israel; and let us say, Amen.
Let the Holy One's great name be blessed forever and ever, praised and honored, extolled and glorified, adored, and exalted.
Supremely blessed be the Holy One, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises, and consolations, that may be uttered in this world; and let us say, Amen.
For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true; and let us say, Amen.
May the One who causes peace to reign in the heavens let peace descend upon us, upon all Israel, and upon the whole world; and let us say, Amen.

Excerpt from "The Prophet"

(By Kahlil Gibran)

Stephanie Young Abbott '67

For what is it to die but stand naked in the wind
And to melt into the sun?
And what is it to cease breathing,
But to free the breath from its restless tides,
That it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?
Only when you drink from the river of silence
Shall you indeed sing.
And when you have reached the mountain top,
Then you shall begin to climb.
And when the earth shall claim your limbs,
Then shall you truly dance.

From "The Discourse on Happiness"

(Trans. by Thich Nhat Hahn)

S. Richard Kilbourne '67

To live in a good environment,
to have planted good seeds,
and to realize that you are on the right path —
this is the greatest happiness.

To have a chance to learn and grow,
to be skillful in your profession or craft, practicing the precepts and loving speech —
this is the greatest happiness.

To be able to serve and support your parents,
to cherish your own family,
to have a vocation that brings you joy —
this is the greatest happiness.

To live honestly, generous in giving,
to offer support to relatives and friends,
living a life of blameless conduct —
this is the greatest happiness.

To live in the world
with your heart undisturbed by the world, with all sorrows ended, dwelling in peace —
this is the greatest happiness.

The College Hymn***

“O God, Beneath Thy Guiding Hand”

(Music: Duke Street. Words: Leonard Bacon, 1838)

O God, beneath thy guiding hand,
Our exiled forebears cross'd the sea;
And when they trod the wintry strand,
With pray'r and psalm they worship'd Thee.

Thou heards't, well-pleased, the song, the prayer;
Thy blessing came; and still its power
Shall onward, through all ages, bear
The memory of that holy hour.

Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God
Came with those exiles o'er the waves;
And where their pilgrim feet have trod
The God they trusted guards their graves.

And here Thy name, O God of love,
Their children's children shall adore,
Till these eternal hills remove
And spring adorns the earth no more.

Benediction***
