RE: Bates Facts 2016-2017

Bates Facts is a common source of basic factual information about Bates College. Now in its 22nd year, Bates Facts is published annually to be used as a reference guide, providing the Bates community and the general public with a standard set of data and information about the college.

The information published in this edition of Bates Facts reflects the 2016-2017 academic year, or (where specified) the most recent figures available. The most current information may be obtained from the office responsible for a particular topic, or from the Office of Institutional Research, Analysis, and Planning. Editions of Bates Facts dating back to the 1996-1997 academic year are posted on-line at <<http://www.bates.edu/research/bates-facts/>>.

To ensure consistency across the college's reporting, the Office of Institutional Research, Analysis, and Planning requests that members of the Bates community who respond to external surveys and data requests should have their final data verified by us before submitting any Bates data.

Please call the Office of Institutional Research, Analysis, and Planning at ext. 8211 or e-mail at arussell@bates.edu if you have comments or questions, or if you have suggestions for new information to include in future editions of Bates Facts.

Double Majors

The double major requires completion of all major requirements in two academic departments or programs.

Individual Interdisciplinary Major

Students may propose an individual interdisciplinary major; which involves a detailed program of study with courses drawn from at least two department(s) and/or program(s), but only one senior thesis and/or comprehensive examination.

Liberal Arts-Engineering Dual Degree Program

After three or four years of full-time study at Bates, qualified students may enroll in a two-year engineering program at Columbia University, Dartmouth College, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Case Western Reserve University, or Washington University. Students earn both an undergraduate degree in engineering from Bates and a Bachelor of Science from the engineering-school affiliate.

Student to Faculty Ratio: 10 to 1²²

²⁰ Headcount includes teaching faculty and those on leave as defined by the Dean of Faculty. Several faculty have contracts for joint or split appointments in more than one department, but totals show unduplicated headcount.

²¹ "AAUP" is the American Association of University Professors. Their definitions for full-time faculty are common among our peer institutions.

²² This student to faculty ratio is calculated based on the Common Data Set definitions and formula. For more on how the ratio is calculated, see page 22 of the most recent Common Data Set posted here: <http://www.bates.edu/research/common-data-set/>

Bates and the Community

Harvard Center for Community Partnerships

Academic Community Learning

- More than half of all students engage in academic community-engaged work during their time at Bates.
- In 2015-2016, 1,144 Bates students were involved in more than 44,160 hours of academic community-engaged work through 52 courses and 39 community-engaged senior theses.
- Ten students participated in our Community-Engaged Research Fellows program and eleven students participated as members of our Short Term Action/Research Team (STA/RT), representing several departments.

Community Volunteerism and Student Leadership Development

- In 2015-2016, 17,135 documented hours of volunteer service were contributed by Bates students.
- Twenty-nine students participated in the Bonner Leader Program, devoting four-to-six hours per week working in the community and another two hours per week engaged in training and reflection activities.

The Bates – Morse Mountain Conservation Area

- More than 21,390 people visited this area in 2015-2016, which is home to two endangered bird species.
- Thirteen courses, teams, and student groups used the Bates-Morse Mountain Conservation Area. In addition, four other colleges used the site.
- Twenty-five elementary, middle, and high schools visited the conservation area, representing 664 students.

Bates Dance Festival

In 2016, the Bates Dance Festival entered its 34th year as an internationally recognized program that presents acclaimed contemporary dance performances, supports creative residencies for choreographers from around the globe, and provides training and professional development to over 270 dance students, and 96 artists and educators who gather on campus each summer for six weeks of immersion. Each summer, the Festival also connects 60 local youth aged 7 to 16 with renowned artist/educators through the Youth Arts Program, a three-week arts camp offering training in the performing and visual arts. Participating in the Bates Dance Festival is now required curriculum for the new Dance major at Bates.

In the summer of 2016, the Festival:

- Produced the work of 3 acclaimed U.S dance companies and 28 independent artists
- Brought to campus over 60 nationally known artists to teach, perform and create new works
- Supported creative residencies by 6 U.S. and 1 international artists
- Enrolled 62 high school students in our Young Dancers Workshop; 149 students in our Professional Training Program; and 60 local youth in our Youth Arts Program who came from 36 states and 9 foreign countries with a total of 17% from underrepresented groups
- Attracted an audience of 3,965 to attend to Festival's performance series

In the last 15 years over 34 BDF artists have returned to the college during the academic year for workshops, awards, and guest artist residencies and 20 Bates grads have returned to work or attend the festival after graduation.

Bates College Museum of Art

The Museum of Art hosted 12,292 visitors in this year. Approximately 24% visited the museum to attend its educational programs. The Museum sponsored 171 educational programs for the Bates and the local communities and non-profit groups. Internally, the Museum of Art staff developed/organized class discussions, lectures and talks for 32 courses with 798 students in attendance. The museum organized and presented 139 educational outreach programs for local and regional K-12 schools, senior colleges and retirement/nursing homes, and non-profit organizations, with 2,117 in attendance. The museum also offers 2-10 for-credit and paid internships annually for Bates students and makes its collections available for study, by appointment.
