RE: Bates Facts 2017-2018

Bates Facts is a common source of basic factual information about Bates College. Now in its 23rd year, Bates Facts is published annually to be used as a reference guide, providing the Bates community and the general public with a standard set of data and information about the college.

The information published in this edition of Bates Facts reflects the 2017-2018 academic year, or (where specified) the most recent figures available. The most current information may be obtained from the office responsible for a particular topic, or from the Office of Institutional Research, Analysis, and Planning. Editions of Bates Facts dating back to the 1996-1997 academic year are posted on-line at <<http://www.bates.edu/research/bates-facts/>>.

To ensure consistency across the college's reporting, the Office of Institutional Research, Analysis, and Planning requests that members of the Bates community who respond to external surveys and data requests should have their final data verified by us before submitting any Bates data.

Please call the Office of Institutional Research, Analysis, and Planning at ext. 8211 or e-mail at arussell@bates.edu if you have comments or questions, or if you have suggestions for new information to include in future editions of Bates Facts.

Double Majors

The double major requires completion of all major requirements in two academic departments or programs.

Individual Interdisciplinary Major

Students may propose an individual interdisciplinary major; which involves a detailed program of study with courses drawn from at least two department(s) and/or program(s), but only one senior thesis and/or comprehensive examination.

Liberal Arts-Engineering Dual Degree Program

After three or four years of full-time study at Bates, qualified students may enroll in a two-year engineering program at Columbia University, Dartmouth College, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Case Western Reserve University, or Washington University. Students earn both an undergraduate degree in engineering from Bates and a Bachelor of Science from the engineering-school affiliate.

Student to Faculty Ratio: 10 to 1²³

²¹ Headcount includes teaching faculty and those on leave as defined by the Dean of Faculty. Several faculty have contracts for joint or split appointments in more than one department, but totals show unduplicated headcount.

²² "AAUP" is the American Association of University Professors. Their definitions for full-time faculty are common among our peer institutions.

²³ This student to faculty ratio is calculated based on the Common Data Set definitions and formula. For more on how the ratio is calculated, see page 22 of the most recent Common Data Set posted here: <http://www.bates.edu/research/common-data-set/>

Bates and the Community

Harvard Center for Community Partnerships

Academic Community Learning

- More than half of all students engage in academic community-engaged work during their time at Bates.
- In 2016-2017, 1,109 Bates students were involved in more than 32,165 hours of academic community-engaged work through 53 courses and 46 community-engaged senior theses.
- Six students participated in our Community-Engaged Research Fellows program and ten students participated as members of our Short Term Action/Research Team (STA/RT), representing several departments.

Community Volunteerism and Student Leadership Development

- In 2016-2017, 6,070 documented hours of volunteer service were contributed by Bates students.
- Thirty-one students participated in the Bonner Leader Program, devoting four-to-six hours per week working in the community and another two hours per week engaged in training and reflection activities.

The Bates – Morse Mountain Conservation Area

- More than 22,691 people visited this area in 2016-2017, which is home to two endangered bird species.
- Thirteen courses, teams, and student groups used the Bates-Morse Mountain Conservation Area. In addition, four other colleges used the site.
- Fourteen elementary, middle, and high schools visited the conservation area, representing 357 students.

Bates Dance Festival

In 2017, the Bates Dance Festival:

- Celebrated and produced the work of 4 important Northeastern based artists/companies and 9 national artists;
- Brought 37 artists to campus to teach and facilitate the creation of new works;
- Supported both national and international creative residencies for two emerging artists;
- Commissioned a site specific work highlighting and celebrating the people and industry of Lewiston's rich Mill communities, which engaged over 25 national artists across disciplines;
- Enrolled 69 high school students in our Young Dancers Workshop; 166 students in our professional Training Program; and 60 local students in our Youth Arts Program;
- Attracted an audience of 4,249 for the Festival's performance series.

Bates College Museum of Art

A total of 10,255 people visited the Museum of Art in 2017. The Museum sponsored a number of educational programs for both the Bates community and the local community. Internally, the Museum of Art staff developed/organized 94 class discussions, lectures, talks, and studio programs with 3,204 in attendance. Regarding outreach, the MoA staff presented 47 educational programs for local and regional K-12 and homeschools, and senior colleges and retirement/ nursing homes, with 1,561 in attendance. The museum also offers 2-8 for-credit, volunteer, and paid internships annually for Bates students and makes its collections available for study, by appointment.
