

Mount David Loop

Mount David Loop is a 0.5 kilometer heavily trafficked out and back trail located near Lewiston, Maine that offers scenic views and is rated as moderate. The trail offers a number of activity options and is accessible year-round. Dogs are also able to use this trail but must be kept on leash. Entrance to the trail is difficult to find, but if you stay on Mountain Avenue and go into the field behind the Bates College dorm between 27 and 32 (Benson St./Mountain Ave. intersection), you will see it.
