Application for the 20** Fall Semester Abroad Program in *****, *****

The Fall Semester Abroad Program is open to all students, with an emphasis on individuals who will be first-years and sophomores. More important than class standing is evidence that the student will gain from the experience. This means that we are looking forward to individuals with curiosity about the culture they will be entering, with tolerance for attitudes and customs different from home, with a willingness to work hard at learning a language, and with an ability to observe and learn about the new culture.

Please complete and return this application to the Off-Campus Study Office, 124 Roger Williams Hall, by December ** for early decision or by the first Friday in February, 20**. (Students applying by December ** will receive notification after winter break; students applying by the first Friday in February ** will receive notification in early March, 20**)

In selecting students for this unit, we want to put together a diverse group from various academic and personal backgrounds. We also want a collegial group that will be able to not only get along with and support one another, but also to teach and learn from one another.

To assist us in this task, please write a short essay, no more than two double-spaced (typed) pages in length. In this essay, please address the following questions as specifically as possible:

- a. Why do you want to enroll in the 20** *****FSA? How will this FSA advance your academic goals? What do you hope to gain on a personal level from participating in this FSA?
- b. What can you bring to the group? What experiences, training, special skills, or special interests do you have that will enrich the experience of other group members and/or our hosts?
