RESOLUTION OPTIONS

Bates is committed to resolving all reports of sexual violence and harassment promptly, fairly, and thoroughly. Investigations are conducted by impartial investigators. These investigators receive annual training on issues related to sexual violence and harassment and on how to conduct fair and reliable investigations that protect the privacy and well-being of all involved. ## RESOLUTION OPTIONS FOLLOWING A REPORT INCLUDE:

Request for supportive and safety measures only;

Administrative Resolution:

Informal Resolution:

OPTIONS FOR ORDERS OF PROTECTION

CAMPUS NO CONTACT ORDERS

The college may implement a campus No Contact Order (NCO) between two community members when reasonable concern of physical or psychological harm may be present. You may request a No Contact Order from the Title IX Coordinator, Gwen Lexow, at 207-786-6445 or glxow@bates.edu.

CIVIL PROTECTION ORDERS

Maine law enables victims of domestic or dating abuse, sexual assault, stalking, or other forms of harassment to obtain both short-term emergency protection and, after hearing, long-term protection. Individuals can petition the court for either a Protection from Abuse or Protection from Harassment Order. For more information on how to petition for a civil protection order, you may speak with the SAVA at 207-753-6996 or with SAPARS at 800-871-7741.

PRESERVING EVIDENCE

Physical evidence may be necessary for criminal prosecution or obtaining a Protection Order. Preserving evidence keeps your options open, allowing you to make decisions regarding how to proceed at a future time. Where applicable consider having a forensic exam. Exams can be done as many as five days after an assault. You do not need to file a police report to get an exam. Consider preserving electronic evidence, such as texts, photos, social media posts, and phone records, as well. More information about forensic exams can be found at: bates.edu/here-to-help.
