NON-DISCRIMINATION STATEMENT

Bates College is committed to the principle of equal opportunity and providing an educational and work environment free from discrimination. The college prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression, age, disability, genetic information or veteran status and other legally protected statuses in the recruitment and admission of its students, in the administration of its education policies and programs, or in the recruitment of its faculty and staff. Bates College adheres to all applicable state and federal equal opportunity laws and regulations.

Inquiries concerning the college's policies, compliance with applicable laws, statutes, and regulations (such as Title VII, Title IX, ADA/Section 504, and Maine Human Rights Act), and complaints may be directed to:

Gwen Lexow, Director of Title IX and Civil Rights Compliance/Title IX Coordinator, at glxow@bates.edu or 207-786-6445.

TITLE IX OF THE EDUCATION
AMENDMENTS OF 1972
PROHIBITS DISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF SEX IN ANY FEDERALLY FUNDED EDUCATION PROGRAM OR ACTIVITY.

Bates is committed to resolving all reports of sexual harassment, including sexual assault, stalking, and domestic and dating violence, promptly, fairly, and thoroughly.

The Bates Title IX Team is trained to receive, respond to, and resolve all reports of sexual harassment and gender-based discrimination that affect Bates community members.

Our role is to eliminate, prevent, and redress all known instances of gender-based misconduct, such as sexual violence, stalking, sexual harassment, and relationship violence.

We are charged with: investigating and resolving reported misconduct and other gender-equity concerns; supporting the people involved; implementing measures to maximize campus safety; and promoting everyone's ability to live and learn in an environment free from gender-based discrimination.

WE CAN HELP YOU:

By providing clear and accurate information regarding our policies and procedures and your rights under our policy

File a criminal complaint with local law enforcement

By responding to allegations of retaliation

File a formal complaint with the college

Obtain confidential support and connect with resources

By arranging for supportive measures, such as academic, housing, work, or transportation changes or remedies

Access protective measures such as No Contact Orders

Resources and assistance are available for all members of our community. Access to this assistance is independent of whether an individual wishes to file a formal complaint or to pursue formal resolution.

REPORTING PRIVATELY

If you are ready to speak privately about your experience, we encourage you to speak with Gwen Lexow, the Title IX Coordinator, or any Deputy Coordinator. You may also speak with a member of Bates Campus Safety at 207-786-6254 or in person at 245 College Street.

Additionally, all faculty, coaches, administrators, and residence life staff are required to share knowledge of any sexual violence or harassment (including assault, stalking, and interpersonal violence) with the Title IX Coordinator. Disclosure of sexual misconduct to any of these individuals will initiate a Title IX response. There is no time limit for reporting to college staff.

REPORTING ANONYMOUSLY

Online at:
bates.ethicspoint.com

2.

By phone at 844-251-1879.

receives all anonymous reports.

REPORTING TO LAW ENFORCEMENT

Individuals wishing to file a criminal complaint with law enforcement may call the Lewiston Police Department directly at 207-784-6421. You may also contact the Title IX Coordinator or Bates Campus Safety to assist you with filing a criminal complaint. Individuals are NOT required to file a criminal complaint.

For more information about filing a criminal complaint, please see: bates.edu/here-to-help.

BATES POLICY PROHIBITS THE FOLLOWING CONDUCT:

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

SEXUAL ASSAULT

DATING & DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

STALKING

SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

INDECENT EXPOSURE

RETALIATION

CONSENT CONSISTS OF AN ACTIVE, CONSCIOUS, AND VOLUNTARY AGREEMENT TO ENGAGE IN SEXUAL ACTIVITY.

An incapacitated individual cannot consent.

CONSENT IS:

INFORMED AND RECIPROCAL;
FREELY AND ACTIVELY GIVEN;
MUTUALLY UNDERSTANDABLE; NOT INDEFINITE; AND NOT UNLIMITED.

For full definitions and descriptions of prohibited conduct and consent, please see:
Bates Equal Opportunity, Non-Discrimination, and Anti-Harassment Policy | bates.edu/here-to-help.

RESOLUTION OPTIONS

Bates is committed to resolving all reports of sexual violence and harassment promptly, fairly, and thoroughly. Investigations are conducted by impartial investigators. These investigators receive annual training on issues related to sexual violence and harassment and on how to conduct fair and reliable investigations that protect the privacy and well-being of all involved. Under most circumstances, the reporting party maintains control of decision-making in choosing how to proceed.

RESOLUTION OPTIONS FOLLOWING A REPORT INCLUDE:

Request for supportive and safety measures only;

Administrative Resolution:
a remedies-based approach with no formal investigation or determination of responsibility;

Alternative Resolution:
an opportunity to reach a mutually-agreeable resolution of a complaint without a full formal grievance process; and

Formal Resolution:
formal grievance process that includes a fact-gathering investigation into the complaint, a determination hearing, and opportunities for appeal.

The college will balance an individual's expressed preferences with its obligation to provide for campus safety.

For more information on resolution options and the procedures for formally resolving reports, please see: bates.edu/here-to-help. Additionally, the Title IX Team and the SAVAs are available to offer support and answer questions about the resolution process.

OPTIONS FOR ORDERS OF PROTECTION

CAMPUS NO CONTACT ORDERS

The college may implement a campus No Contact Order (NCO) between two community members when reasonable concern of physical or psychological harm may be present. You may request a No Contact Order from the Title IX Coordinator, Gwen Lexow, at 207-786-6445 or glxow@bates.edu.

CIVIL PROTECTION ORDERS

Maine law enables victims of domestic or dating abuse, sexual assault, stalking, or other forms of harassment to obtain both short-term emergency protection and, after hearing, long-term protection. Individuals can petition the court for either a Protection from Abuse or Protection from Harassment Order. For more information on how to petition for a civil protection order, you may speak with the SAVA at 207-753-6996 or with SAPARS at 800-871-7741.

PRESERVING EVIDENCE

Physical evidence may be necessary for criminal prosecution or obtaining a Protection Order. Preserving evidence keeps your options open, allowing you to make decisions regarding how to proceed at a future time. Where applicable consider having a forensic exam. Exams can be done as many as five days after an assault. You do not need to file a police report to get an exam. Consider preserving electronic evidence, such as texts, photos, social media posts, and phone records, as well. More information about forensic exams can be found at: bates.edu/here-to-help.
