

Sky Hopinka (Ho-Chunk Nation of Wisconsin/Pechanga Band of Luiseño Indians, b. 1984, Ferndale, Washington; lives in New York City, New York) studied and taught chinuk wawa, a language indigenous to the Lower Columbia River Basin while in Portland, Oregon. He received an AA from Riverside City College, BA in Liberal Arts from Portland State University, and MFA in Film, Video, Animation, and New Genres at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Hopinka is Assistant Professor of Film and Electronic Arts at Bard College.

Select screenings at:

- Chicago Underground Film Festival, Illinois
- Courtisane, Ghent, Belgium
- Milwaukee Film Festival, Wisconsin
- Punto de Vista, Pamplona, Spain
- Sundance Film Festival, Park City and Salt Lake City, Utah
- Toronto International Film Festival, Ontario, Canada

Select Group Exhibitions at:

- Hessel Museum of Art, Bard College, Annandale-on-Hudson, New York
- Memorial Art Gallery, University of Rochester, New York
- Museum of Modern Art, New York City
- Whitney Museum of American Art, New York City

Select Solo Exhibitions at:

- Block Museum of Art, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois
- The High Line, New York City
- Media Art Gallery, Emerson Contemporary, Emerson College, Boston, Massachusetts
- Museum of Modern Art, New York City
- Vorspiel/transmediale, Berlin, Germany
- VOX, centre de l'image contemporaine, Montreal, Quebec, Canada

Awards Include:

- Baloise Art Prize, Art Basel, Switzerland
- Guggenheim Fellowship
- MacArthur Fellowship