LEADERSHIP ON BATES COLLEGE INSTITUTIONAL INITIATIVES

Bates College Institutional and Strategic Plan (March 2015-October 2016)

- Team Leader, Educating the Whole Person
 - Coordinated a 16-member team of faculty, students, and staff (1 of 4 institutional planning teams) to assess that status of holistic education (curricular and co-curricular at Bates College) including benchmarking against peer and aspirational liberal arts colleges
 - Drafted report on a range of recommendations, including but not limited to, review of the general education program, systematic support for improved faculty advisement, creation of a multidisciplinary center for social inquiry, overhaul of facilities and operations of student athletics, and establishment of student services center
 - Facilitated meetings with invested constituencies including student leaders (resident advisors, Intercultural Peer Mentors, team captains, and student government)

- Member, Steering Committee
 - Facilitated meetings with faculty and staff on the process and recommendations of Institutional Planning
 - Updated Board of Trustees of Bates College throughout the planning process
 - Drafted and re-drafted final report as approved by the full faculty in October 2016

Chair, Politics Department (August 2015- Present)

- Work collaboratively with about ten other faculty to manage and implement political science curriculum
- Oversee multiple one-year visiting searches (Latin American Politics, Political Economy, International Relations and Security Studies, and Middle East politics) (2015-17)
- Successfully implemented establishment of new tenure line in East Asian politics (2015-17)
- Recruited Mellon Diversity (C3) Post-doctoral fellow, and retained individual in political theory line (2015-17)
- Established new three-year model for curricular scheduling and staffing
- Leveraged relations with other social science and humanities programs to institutionalize co-curricular programming around US elections on biannual basis (2012, 2014, 2016)
- Lead assessment and self-study analysis for decennial external review of the politics department including revision of curriculum, design and implementation of new thesis pedagogy, and review of methodology training

Co-Chair, Committee on Faculty Governance (2016-17)

- Manage the process of committee formation and shared governance at Bates College
- Review and revise legislation
- Collaborate with Academic Affairs Council (Dean's Advisory Committee) on issues of College governance and education policy

Co-Chair, Student Affairs Committee (2016-18)

- Collaborate with the Dean of Students (the other co-chair), faculty, students, and staff on crafting new policy in line with recommendations of the Campus Culture Working Group and Bates Institutional Plan
- Develop new college-wide policies around student absence and accessibility
- Develop assessment program and support for faculty academic advisement

Member, Bates Diversity Advocate Team (2017-19)

- Chair, Search Committee for the Chief Diversity Officer (December 2017—May 2018)
- Work with three other faculty members, supported by a Mellon Foundation grant, to develop and implement plans to strengthen recruitment and retention of diverse faculty
- Participate in Hackman Consulting racial equity education and training series (30 hours)
- Assist academic units in designing tools and strategies to build diverse candidate pools and implement techniques to encourage inclusive dynamics throughout the hiring process.
- Engage collaboratively with offices at the College to develop programming on how Bates can more intentionally embrace its rhetorical and historical commitments to diversity, equity, and inclusion

Campus Culture Working Group (October 2014-May 2016)

- Worked collaboratively with a team of faculty, students, and staff to assess campus culture and advise the new Dean of Students, Joshua McIntosh
- Worked with Dean McIntosh to draft a report highlighting areas of concern and recommended action items including investment in facilities for health services and psychological counseling, establishment of peer education, revamped student services, new policies around alcohol and drug use, and continued investment in programming and staff support for underrepresented populations including students of color and first-generation to college
- Established implementation plan by working with the Committee on Faculty Governance to draft and pass the establishment of Student Affairs Committee, to institutionalize faculty, staff, and student collaboration with the Dean of Students
