Life After Bates - How to Tackle Your Taxes

Filing taxes is an inevitable part of adult life, but it doesn't have to be a mystery! Save yourself the headache of using online tax services or paying for help—join us for a 60 with Dean Reese-minute workshop to learn how and when to file your taxes. We'll give you the skills to handle it on your own, helping you save time, money, and avoid unnecessary confusion.

Feel free to bring your tray from Commons and eat during the program.

Tuesday, 3/18, 12:00 - 1:00 pm in Commons 201

Please note: Drop-In Hours are only offered while classes are in session. There are no drop-in hours during exam periods or academic breaks.

Students can reserve a room in Chase for interviews by emailing Purposeful Work at purposefulwork@bates.edu with the date and start/end times of your interview. Please provide as much notice as possible. If you need space at the last minute, please go to the Purposeful Work Suite (on the first floor) and ask if a room is available. We will do our best to accommodate you.

Please DO NOT use rooms 217 or 218 in Chase unless you have reserved it through Purposeful Work. We have scheduled student interviews every single day; if you simply walk in, you will disrupt previously scheduled reservations. If you stay in this space without a reservation, you will likely be interrupted by the person who has the space reserved. PLEASE PLAN AHEAD.
