RE: Bates Facts 2014-2015

Bates Facts is a common source of basic factual information about Bates College. Now in its 20th year, Bates Facts is published annually to be used as a reference guide, providing the Bates community and the general public with a standard set of data and information about the college.

The information published in this edition of Bates Facts reflects the 2014-2015 academic year, or (where specified) the most recent figures available. The most current information may be obtained from the office responsible for a particular topic, or from the Office of Institutional Research, Analysis, and Planning. Editions of Bates Facts dating back to the 1996-1997 academic year are posted on-line at <<http://www.bates.edu/research/bates-facts/>>.

To ensure consistency across the college's reporting, the Office of Institutional Research, Analysis, and Planning requests that members of the Bates community who respond to external surveys and data requests should have their final data verified by us before submitting any Bates data.

Please call the Office of Institutional Research, Analysis, and Planning at ext. 8211 or e-mail at arussell@bates.edu if you have comments or questions, or if you have suggestions for new information to include in future editions of Bates Facts.

Double Majors

The double major requires completion of all major requirements in two academic departments or programs.

Individual Interdisciplinary Major

Students may propose an individual interdisciplinary major; which involves a detailed program of study with courses drawn from at least two department(s) and/or program(s), but only one senior thesis and/or comprehensive examination.

Liberal Arts-Engineering Dual Degree Program

After three or four years of full-time study at Bates, qualified students may enroll in a two-year engineering program at Columbia University, Dartmouth College, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Case Western Reserve University, or Washington University. Students earn both an undergraduate degree in engineering from Bates and a Bachelor of Science from the engineering-school affiliate.

Student to Faculty Ratio: 10 to 1²⁵

²³ Headcount includes teaching faculty and those on leave as defined by the Dean of Faculty. Several faculty have contracts for joint or split appointments in more than one department, but totals show unduplicated headcount.

²⁴ "AAUP" is the American Association of University Professors. Their definitions for full-time faculty are common among our peer institutions.

²⁵ This student to faculty ratio is calculated based on the Common Data Set definitions and formula. For more on how the ratio is calculated, see page 22 of the most recent Common Data Set posted here: <http://www.bates.edu/research/common-data-set/>

Bates Facts 14-15

Bates and the Community

Harvard Center for Community Partnerships

Academic Community Learning

- Half of all students engage in academic community-engaged work during their time at Bates.
- In 2013-2014, 579 Bates students were involved in more than 39,610 hours of academic community-engaged work through 48 courses.
- Six students participated in our Community-Engaged Research Fellows program and six students participated as members of our Short Term Action Research Team (STA/RT), representing several departments.

Community Volunteerism and Student Leadership Development

- In 2013-2014, 11,883 documented hours of volunteer service were given by Bates students.
- Twenty-seven students participated in the Bonner Leader Program, devoting four-to-six hours per week working in the community and another two hours per week engaged in training and reflection activities.

The Bates – Morse Mountain Conservation Area

- More than 18,000 people visited this area in 2013-2014, which is home to two endangered bird species.
- Faculty in four courses used the Bates-Morse Mountain Conservation Area. In addition, five other colleges used the site.
- Sixteen elementary, middle and high schools visited the conservation area, representing 566 students.

Bates Dance Festival

In 2014, the Bates Dance Festival entered its 32nd year as an internationally recognized program that presents acclaimed contemporary dance performances, supports creative residencies for choreographers from around the globe, and provides training and professional development to over 320 dance students, artists and educators who gather on campus each summer for six weeks of immersion. Each summer, the Festival also connects 60 local youth aged 7 to 16 with renowned artist/educators through the Youth Arts Program, a three-week arts camp offering training in the performing and visual arts. Participating in the Bates Dance Festival is now required curriculum for the new Dance major at Bates.

In the summer of 2014, the Festival:

- Produced the work of 4 acclaimed U.S dance companies
- Brought to campus 80 nationally known artists to teach, perform and create new works
- Supported creative residencies by 3 U.S. and 1 international artists
- Enrolled 76 students in our Young Dancers Workshop, 174 student in our Professional Training Program and 63 local youth in our Youth Arts Program with a total of 18% from underrepresented groups
- Enrolled 76 high school students from 22 states and 2 foreign countries to experience 3 weeks of pre-professional dance training on Bates campus
- Attracted an audience of 4,416 to attend to Festival's performance series

In the last dozen years over 26 BDF artists have returned to the college during the academic year for workshops, awards, and guest artist residencies and 12 Bates grads have returned to work or attend the festival after graduation. In 2014 Sean Dorsey Dance conducted a two-week teaching/community residency that intersected with multiple classes and across the curriculum.

Bates College Museum of Art

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2014, a total of 17,548 people visited the Museum of Art. The Museum sponsored a number of educational programs for both the Bates community and the local community. Internally, the Museum of Art staff developed/organized class discussions, lectures and talks for 13 courses, 11 faculty, and with 464 students in attendance. Regarding outreach, the MoA staff presented 52 education programs for local and regional K-12 and homeschools, and senior colleges and retirement/ nursing homes, with 3,651 in attendance. The museum also offers 2-6 for-credit and volunteer internships annually for Bates students and makes its collections available for study, by appointment.
