

Driving Bates Forward: Your Role as a Class Agent

Your Commitment

Volunteers are critical to Bates' fundraising success. As a class agent, your outreach and drive helps Bates fulfill its mission of providing a best-in-class liberal arts education to the most deserving students. In this role, you will:

- Lead by example: Make your gift to Bates by December 31.
- Contact 10–20 classmates about making their Bates Fund gift. Select and reach out to your assignments through our easy-to-use volunteer platform.
- Share news from campus and speak with classmates about the importance of giving to Bates.
- Encourage classmates to participate in virtual or in-person alumni programming. Visit bates.edu/alumni/events for more information.
- Thank those who make a gift with a personal thank-you.

Every Gift Matters Every Gift Counts

Invest in the Future
Every gift is transformational and enables the college to enhance the educational experience of students every day. By giving to the Bates Fund, you provide the next generation with:

- A best-in-class liberal arts experience spanning academic, athletic, and co-curricular programs
- Funded internships and student-faculty research opportunities
- Career development resources that help the college build students a stronger bridge to life after Bates
- Access to a global community of supportive alumni, forming a large and ever-growing Bates family
- Generous financial aid (average financial aid package of $45,303) for 43 percent of Bates students
- A 10:1 student-to-faculty ratio, with top-tier, field faculty
- Technology resources to enhance the teaching and learning experience

The Power of Giving
10,000 gifts to the Bates Fund collectively totaling nearly $2 million last year have the same annual impact as adding $40 million to the endowment.

Participation Matters

- Alumni participation is a factor in the calculation of national college rankings.
- Your giving inspires others to give: be a philanthropic role model for all Bates alumni.
- High rates of alumni participation help Bates receive foundation and corporate grant funding.

Who Supports the Bates Fund

The Bates Fund, including gifts to Friends of Bates Athletics, provides vital support for academic, athletic, and co-curricular programs.
